A Very Wolfsonian Week Kicks off by Honoring Donors and Wraps Up with Three-Day Fundraiser and Car Celebration

The week of November 9 was an exciting one for The Wolfsonian—Florida International University, beginning with the unveiling by FIU President Mark B. Rosenberg of a permanent "donor recognition wall." Each donor's name (representing gifts of $50,000 and above) is engraved on the spine of an innovative aluminum book/time capsule containing mementos on the lives of those who contributed to the museum's growth and success. The evening marked the induction of 22 individuals and family foundations and the recognition of 12 long standing corporate sponsors. It was generously sponsored by Akerman Senterfitt and Bessemer Trust.

The week concluded with the three-day Very Wolfsonian Weekend—"An Affair On, In, and With the Motor Car," which celebrated South Florida's rich car culture. The annual fundraiser kicked off with cocktails at The Creative Workshop, hosted by Jason and Kim Wenig. Saturday evening featured an inspiring presentation by renowned car designer Chris Bangle followed by a reception at the Bacardi Building Plaza and dinner in the stunning Braman Motors Showroom, honoring Wolfsonian founder Micky Wolfson's 70th birthday. The weekend culminated with visits to The Fort Lauderdale Antique Car Museum and The Dauer Museum of Classic Cars.
