Lynn and Barry: What an event. As a friend used to say, "I've been to three world fairs and a circus, but I've never seen anything like that." No better words could be spoken to describe the birth of your new baby. The TR-60 is so impressive and it was a special treat to meet Jason and Kim. The entire afternoon culminating with the introduction of your new treasure was five star. As always, it's a pleasure to be in your company and to have been invited to your special occasion.

From all of the Wares, our thanks our love and our best wishes.

We wish you a most wonderful Thanksgiving,

P.K.
